

2022 AIP Annual Session Workshop Plan

Speaker	Topic	Description
Lucy Anderson, JD, CP-T	Exploring the Limits of Debate	This workshop provides an in-depth look at the motion, to Limit or Extend Limits of Debate. Attendees will learn when the motion is in order; how to make the motion; and how the motion is exhausted. The workshop will be interactive. Attendees will be asked to participate throughout the session.
Barry Glazer, MD, CPP-T	How to Kill a Motion	A main motion has been made and seconded and stated by the chair. You are opposed to the motion, and you know who in the assembly is “on your side.” Knowing how many votes you have, what are the parliamentary strategies you might apply to prevent the main motion from being adopted?
Shannon Sun, Esq., CPP-T	Calculating the Assembly's Decision: Computing Voting Numbers and Exploring Voting Methods	In order to determine the will of the assembly, we first must look into the voting requirements and methods. This workshop will focus on the default and alternative methods of calculating voting requirements, such as the majority and 2/3s vote. We will also be exploring different voting methods and how these methods can impact
Daniel Ivey-Soto, JD, CP-T	Our Bylaws Say What...??	At the time the bylaws were written, everybody knew what we meant to say and agreed upon the meaning of the provisions in the bylaws – or so we thought. When a real-world situation
Colette Collier Trohan, CPP-T	Provisos
Daniel Foster, PhD, CP-T	Exploring Characteristics of Effective Teaching: What are the fundamentals? [NOTE: By rule, this workshop is open to T-Holders only]	At times, improving our teaching can be frustrating! Sometimes we just need to revisit fundamentals to allow us systematically reflect on our planned instruction. This workshop, designed for parliamentarians with the teaching credential from AIP, will revisit the fundamentals. We will explore research-based characteristics of effective teaching and describe practices for operationalizing them in our parliamentary education endeavors.
Panel: Wanda Sims, CP Susan Eads Role, JD, CP Todd Brand, CP Kay Crews, CPP-T, Moderator	Prepping for my CP Exam	Hear from recent CPs how they prepped for the CP Exam, what they did to earn AIP Leadership Points, and what their plans are for their next steps along the path of credentialing. Will they get their -T? Are they curious about the CPP? During the session you will have the chance to add your questions for this open dialog!
